Hand-drawn technical sketches of a wooden structure, likely a book binding or a small cabinet, showing various components and their assembly. The sketches are on lined paper.

On the left, a long vertical piece is labeled "Fondo dell' albero di gallina" (Chicken tree trunk). Below it, a smaller piece is labeled "Albero di gallina" (Chicken tree trunk).

The sketches include various cross-sections and details of the wood grain and joints.

This image shows a close-up of a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint, dark vertical lines, possibly from the binding or scanning process. The lighting is even, highlighting the subtle variations in the paper's tone.
